PERMANENT SITE STORY DOUBTED

Local People, Close to Guard Officials, do not Believe Mt. Gretna Story. Stewart Knows Nothing of it.

Local people who follow closely National Guard encampment matters were considerably interested in the story which appeared in yesterday's Times regarding the rumor of Mt. Gretna being chosen as the permanent camp site. As stated at the time the news was got from the Sunday Philadelphia North American.

Those who are most closely in touch with the status of affairs concerning the division encampment for this coming summer state that while they believe there is some cause for concern regarding the encampment this year they do not believe the outlook is as dark as yesterday's news would make it appear.

They are positive that Mt. Gretna has not been definitely chosen as a permanent camping ground and say that Gettysburg is reasonably sure of this year's division encampment provided the land owners and citizens are reasonable in their demands and contributions. The source of the rumor that the Guards would camp at Mt. Gretna permanently is not known.

For some time, as is generally known, an effort has been on foot to get the permanent site for the encampment, both brigade and division, located here. Had there been any other place chosen, it is most probable that local parties would have been notified.

Concerning the Mt Gretna story the Harrisburg Telegraph on Monday evening said "Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart said today that he knew of no additional purchases of land by the State at Mt. Gretna and said the story about a peramnent camp site at that place was news to him."

DARKER KHAKI UNIFORMS

A general order from National Guard headquarters Monday announced that an issue of the new olive drab khaki uniform adopted by the War Department will be made to the National Guard of Pennsylvania before the annual Summer encampment.

The order states that the uniform will be much darker than the khaki now in use and that owing to the large number that will be required and the short time for manufacture no special measurements will be made up.

The new uniform will be worn only for ceremonies or when men are off duty. Requisitions are to be made at once.

RUNAWAY

At Mont Alto while Edward Wile was driving one of the large teams down the mountain, in some way or other the wagon pushed too fast on the horses, which frightened them, so that they started on a swift run down the mountain. Mr. Wile's effort to check them seemed fruitless and it was not until the team arrived at the park that it was got under control. Fortunately no one was hurt; neither was there any damage done to the team.

PATRONS' DAY IN THE SCHOOLS

Town and Rural Schools Observe Washington's Birthday by Inviting Parents and Friends to Visit them. Show Work.

Today was Patrons' Day in the town and rural schools all over Adams County and hundreds of parents and friends spent an hour or more in the various public school buildings in the county.

No special programs of recitations and exercises and the other things that go to make up the regulation school entertainment program were given, it being the idea of the school authorites to let the patrons see just what kind of work is being done by the various teachers and scholars in the county.

In some instances, however, one or two extra touches were put on for the benefit and entertainment of the visitors and everywhere a most pleasant and profitable time was spent by those who accepted the general invitation sent out by principals and teachers in the county.

The schools in Adams County have never been in better shape or in better hands than at present. The teaching force is most efficient and the frequent meetings and institutes are making it all the more so. The directors are showing more interest than ever before and as a result the schools are in first class shape.

That this is true was clearly shown to the patrons who spent the day in the various schools of Adams County.

EXCITED OVER OIL FIND

Delaware People Find Scum on the Broadkiln River.

Milton, Del., Feb. 22.—Excitement is at fever heat in Milton over reports of an oil find. For the past few days at low tide the water of the upper Broadkiln river have been covered with a thick scum of oil, plainly distinguishable on the water.

At first it was thought a leaking naphtha launch had been covering the water until the oil was traced to a point above the mooring place of these boats. Many believe the oil comes from a natural well in the lowlands above the city hall, but efforts have failed to locate it. There is a supposition that it may be marsh petroleum similar to that discovered floating on the marshes near Milford some years ago, except that this oil is thick and shows every appearance of being of the best. One rumor is that the flow was located my a Milton man and the location is being kept a secret by him.

STRIKE LEADER UNDER ARREST

Rioting Breaks Out Again in Philadelphia.

SCORES OF PERSONS INJURED

Motormen and Conductors Pulled From Cars and Badly Beaten by Howling Mobs—Car Dynamited In Center of City—May Call Out the Militia.

Philadelphia, Feb. 22.—C. O. Pratt, leader of the striking car men, is under arrest, charged with conspiracy and inciting riots.

Director of Public Safety Henry Clay, who bosses, under Mayor Reyburn, a force of policemen that has proved wholly ineffective, called four plain clothes men into his office and told them to get the strike leader wherever he could be found. He had an idea, did Clay, that Pratt would show fight and that there would be a fine shindy that would further discredit the strikers. They found Pratt in a restaurant and took him to city hall and thrust him into a cell. With him at the time were John J. Murphy, president of the Central Labor Union, and Peter Driscoll, president of the Amalgamated union, the organization that is on strike.

Now that Pratt has been put behind the bars, the command of the strikers devolves upon John J. Murphy, whose importance lies in the fact that he has powe rto call out from 75,000 to 100,000 labor union men and paralyze every important industry in the city of Philadelphia.

Director Clay's totally unexpected action has rendered the whole situation more acute. People are afraid that it will have the effect of unifying disgruntled elements among the strikers, and that it may lead to further disorders.

May Call Out Militia.

It looks very much as if the tramp of the National Guard will be heard in the streets within a day or two. The happenings of the past twenty-four hours, which included the dynamiting of street cars, scores of encounters between the police and the gangs of strikers and strike sympathizers, the invasion of the down town district by the disorderly element and the apparent helplessness of the police to stamp out the rioting led to a conference between Mayor Reyburn, Brigadier General Wendell P. Bowman, commander of the First brigade; District Attorney Rotan and Director of Public Safety Clay. General Bowman was asked how soon he could assemble his soldiers in their armories and mobilize them for service. Under the act of 1850 the mayor has power to call on the miltia to put down rioting.

Undoubtedly the course of events will determine whether the city is to be put practically under martial law and the street cars defended with bayonets. While the rioting Monday was less widespread than on Sunday, and though there were fewer persons shot and beaten, the spirit of the strikers remained precisely the same. There simply were not enough idlers loose upon the streets to convert an argument into so many bloody fights.

But the disorder, nevertheless, was general and touched for the first time the business and fine residential sections of the city. For the first time, also, dynamite was used to destroy cars. There is a feeling of apprehension among citizens generally that has cut down school attendance 25 per cent and has cut into the business of merchants enormously.

Dynamite on Tracks.

The first fighting that the business section has seen took place in front of the Reading Terminal, at Twelfth and Market streets. A car ran over an explosive that had been placed on a rail, and there was an explosion that shattered every pane of glass in the car, hurled the conductor against a cross seat and shook up a dozen passengers. The police said that a small dynamite bomb had been secured to the track, a bomb exploded by a percussion cap. A minute or two after the bang there were 5000 people swirling at the corner, a jam through which the police tried vainly to bore a way. Trouble-makers ran to the Market Street National bank, which is being reconstructed, caught up armloads of bricks and ran back to bombard the car. The passengers, having picked themselves up from the floor where they had been dashed by the shock of the explosion, ran for their lives. Some of them were hit by the missiles before they could get free. A riot call was sent to the city hall, and two automobile loads of police tore up. The cops didn't get there in time to save the motorman. He was so badly beaten that he was taken to the Jefferson hospital unconscious. The police cornered half a dozen men who seemed to be directing the fight and clubbed and choked them into submission. They put up an ugly fight, resisting stubbornly.

Clay sent squads of mounted men to the sections where the spirit of lawlessness was most manifest. Time after time small details of mounted policemen rode headlong into crowds that were attempting to destroy cars and punish non-union workmen. The station houses were crammed with prisoners, all of whom were held on charges of rioting.

Here is the brand of trouble that the citizens are afraid of and that the police do not appear to be able to stop. William Maloney, a strike breaker, was running a car north on Kensington avenue, when a brick came from nowhere and fractured his skull. Maloney dropped forward and sidewise over the iron gate at the car front. There were 1000 men and women in the mob and they yelled delightedly when they saw the motorman was badly hurt. A woman leaned forward and deliberately threw a stone at the unconscious man. The car was moving forward all this time, slowly, because Maloney had passed out before he could switch on the current. The conductor ran forward, threw over the controller and dragged Maloney back into the car. It enraged the mob. Dozens of men leaped aboard the car, hammered the conductor over the face and head with their fists, knocked him down and kicked him and left him senseless for the police to take care of. They wrecked the car and got away before the police came.

Another strike breaker got into serious trouble at Sixth street and Lehigh avenue. He was the conductor of one of two Glenside cars that were brought to a halt by a barricade of iron pipes that a mob had erected across the tracks. The motorman showed a yellow streak. He saw the barricade when he was a block away, brought his car up with a jerk, jumped off and ran like a coyote. The conductor stuck. The mob caught him.

"Here, I'll give up!" he cried and laughed.

He was still grinning, his hands in the air, when a brick struck him on the right temple. His skull was broken.

Tried to ynch Non-Union Man.

A mob of 3000, in which there were at least 200 women shrieking like harpies, pulled William Wills, a non union man, from the motorman's platform of a Frankford car. Lieutenant Sykes galloped up with a squad of Clay's cavalry and charged the crowd. The police had their revolvers out, and it looked for a minute as if there would be shooting. Three of the mob had thrown a rope around Wills' neck, had noosed it and were preparing to swing him up to a lamppost. The pistols scared them off and the police rescued the shaking motorman.

The mobs resorted to curious devices to stop the progress of the cars A crowd laid an American flag over the rails of Kensington avenue tracks When the motorman of a car ran straight over the flag they yanked him off and beat him badly. At another point they rolled, with much exertion a pair of enormous beer casks obtained at a brewery and set them solemnly on the tracks. There was no trouble here. When the first car came along the motorman and conductor took one look and climbed off. Frequently squads of strikers or their sympathizers planted themselves between the rails and dared the motormen to run over them. It was about the most effective barricade they found. The car men didn't dare. It would have meant their death, in all likelihood. Ashes cartloads of dirt, the contents of all the garbage cans that could be collected for blocks around, piles of iron and heaps of wooden beams were piled on the tracks, tactics that interfered materially with the attempt of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company to keep certain lines in service.

The Rapid Transit company reported that 179 cars were wrecked and that 1159 window panes had been smashed.

400 MOULDERS JOIN SCHWAB STRIKERS

Ten Cranemen Also Walk Out of Bethlehem Steel Works.

South Bethlehem, Pa., Feb. 22.—The leaders in charge of the strike at the Bethlehem Steel works say that they scored heavily when the strikers' ranks were increased by 400 moulders, who went out. It is said the walk-out has crippled the iron foundry considerably. Besides the moulders, ten of the cranemen struck.

Last week the steel moulders were about to go out, when the steel company adjusted their grievances and they decided to remain at work.

When this became known to the iron moulders they asked for a 30-cent an hour minimum rate, time and talf time for over work and double time for Sunday.

Frederick Sell, an iron moulder, in an interview told of the conference with Superintendent Shennan. He said Mr. Shennan stated there is no minimum rate existing established in the Lehigh Valley, such a rate could not be granted, he said, and that only straight time would be paid. Mr. Shennan urged the men to stay at work, but this advice was rejected, and in a body the moulders marched out of the plant to the strikers' headquarters, where a mass meeting was being held.

The strike leaders at once took the men into the union and announced that positions elsewhere would be found for the moulders.

"No Three o'clock Fatigue"

The Value of the

Monarch Light Touch

A typewriter is not an automatic machine with a fixed output; the amount of work produced must always be dependent upon the operator.

The operator begins work in the morning with a certain supply of physical energy. With the ordinary heavy working typewriter she exhausts that energy before the day's end—then comes "three o'clock fatigue" and slow, dragging work.

Monarch Light Touch lightens the operator's load—draws less on her energy per folio. The result is that the operator is able to maintain full speed right up to closing time, finishing fresh and strong. Her efficiency is increased, the output of her machine is enlarged, and consequently the per folio cost of typewriting to her employer is reduced.

Let us demonstrate this and other Monarch features to you.

Free Sample For Baby's Ills

Something can and must be done for the puny, crying baby, for the child that refuses to eat and is restless in its sleep. And since the basis of all health is the proper working of the digestive organs, look first to the condition of the stomach and bowels.

A child should have two full and free movements of the bowels a day. This emptying of the bowels is very important, as with it comes a clear head, a lightness of step, good appetite and sound sleep. But it is equally important to know what to give the child in the emergency of constipation and indigestion. Cathartics are too strong and salts and other purgatives are not only too strong, but the child refuses them because of their bad taste. Have you ever tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin? It is a liquid tonic that families have been using for a quarter of a century. It is mild, pleasant-tasting and promptly effective. It is good for you as well as the child, but there is nothing better to be found for children. They like its taste—you will not have to force them to take it.

First of all, if you have not yet used it, Dr. Caldwell would like to send you a sample bottle free of charge. In this way you can try it before buying. Later, when convinced of its merits, you can get it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, just as thousands of other families are doing. The family of Mr. D. W. Spangler of Strattonville, Pa., as well as that of Mr. A. F. Johnson of Walnut Grove, Tenn., started with it in that way and now write that it is their one family necessity next to food itself. If you are unfortunate enough to have a sickly child, one given to constipation and indigestion, you should send for a free sample of this remedy.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 521 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

SAYS SEYLER HAS CONFESSED

Death of Girl on Atlantic City Pier Near Solution.

WON'T TELL THE DETAILS

Police Chief Says Suspect Told What Took Place on Pier the Night Jane Adams Met Her Death.

Atlantic City, Feb. 22. — "William Seyler has confessed enough to enable us to demand an indictment for manslaughter against him," was the announcement made by Chief of Police Woodruff. "What occurred on the end of the pier the night of the tragedy I intend to have brought out at the inquest fixed for Wednesday night, now that we have William Seyler's admission that he was with the dead girl on the fatal night of Feb. 4.

"In the absence of positive evidence we could not seek to have him accused of deliberate murder. The prisoner, in the presence of Captain of Detectives Whelan and Detectives Malseed and Miller, made the statement voluntarily and at the moment we exhausted the questions we had framed to ask him.

Confession Unexpected.

"It came unexpectedly after two hours were spent in fruitlessly trying to secure answers from him. We were talking to him quietly in the office of Captain Whelan and made no threats or promises and simply advised him that it was to his personal interest to give a detailed story of what transpired on the outer end of the pier when he was left alone there in the darkness with Jane Adams, by his brother Orvis and Alice Adams, a sister of the dead girl. We pointed out to him that Alice and his brother Orvis had declared unequivocally that they left them on the pier and he was under obligation to give an account of what happened.

"Seyler became nervous and began to twich in his chair. When questions were asked he was absent-minded. To me it was a case of the awakening of a conscience, and I studied the prisoner closely. He started up with jerks at times. For hours he had stubbornly avoided making replies to our queries. 'I will not answer questions,' was his one answer.

"Suddenly he blurted out, 'Yes, I was with Jane Adams and I left Atlantic City because I was afraid they would hold me responsible for her disappearance. My brother Orvis, who was on the pier that night, went with me, as he was afraid of being mixed up in the case. I made a mistake by going away. I see it now. I should have remained in Atlantic City.'

"Then followed a story which corresponded to the tale told by Alice Adams and Orvis Seyler on the outer end of the pier," said the chief. "It confirmed practically every statement made up to date."

Chief Woodruff declared that it would not be fair towards the coroner to anticipate the evidence which will be presented at the inquest, which, owing to the admissions of the prisoner, can now be held without hampering the detectives in collecting evidence.

"In your opinion the coroner's inquest will hold William Seyler for the grand jury and the evidence you have will warrant having an indictment presented charging him with manslaughter?" was asked the chief.

"From what information the police have in their possession at the present time, I believe this will be able," he replied.

West Virginia Wins In Boundary Case

European Hair Schools

In Berlin, Paris, Vienna and other European cities there are now regular schools where the scientific care of the hair is made a special study and the teachers in these schools become so skilled in the knowledge of hair that they can tell merely by the touch whether it is in a healthy condition or not. They also know the effects of different tonics on different hair or different restoratives on the same hair. It is thoroughly established that dyes are harmful to the hair. All preparations claiming to restore gray hair are subjected to the most rigid tests. If found in the least degree harmful the public is informed through official bulletins issued from time to time. In America there is no such censorship, and many preparations claiming to restore gray hair are only temporary dyes that do not go to the root of the trouble, which is impoverishment of the hair glands. HAY'S HAIR HEALTH in this country is recognized as the standard restorative for prematurely gray hair. All good druggists sell it at 50c. and a dollar per bottle, or it can be purchased from the manufacturer, Philo Specialties Co., Newark, N. J., U. S. A.

NAVAL TUG NINA FOUND

Said to Have Been Driven Upon the Coast of Virginia.

Newport News, Va., Feb. 22.—It is reported at Fort Monroe that the missing naval tug Nina has been found on the coast of Virginia. It is reported the tender was driven there by the severe storm which it was thought sent her to the bottom of the Atlantic.

Nina Report Stirs Washington.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Intense interest was shown by the navy department in the report from Newport News that the Nina had not gone down, but lay stranded on the beach along the Virginia coast.

Inquiries at once were set afoot to ascertain the truth of the report, which in some quarters tended to renew hope that the thirty-two men who were aboard her when she left Norfolk on Feb. 6 were alive.

GETS LEPROSY FROM "RATS"

St. Louis Girl Gets Disease From Asiatic Hair.

St. Louis, Feb. 22.—Acting on information that there are two girls here suffering from leprosy caused by the wearing of "rats" made of Asiatic hair, G. A. Jordan, assistant health commissioner, will investigate the sale of hair goods here.

The girls, according to the health board's informant, were employed until a few days ago in a down town store.

DEATH SENTENCE FOR THREE MURDERERS

To be Hanged For Killing George Johnson, a Cobbler.

Norristown, Pa., Feb. 22.—John Ballon, Frank Chicarine and Nick Maringe, the three Italians convicted of murdering George Johnson, the East Norristown cobbler, on the night of Aug. 31, 1909, were sentenced by the court to be hanged.

Counsel for the men had made motions for new trials and all motions were overruled. Attorneys for Maringe and Chicarine served notice that they will appeal to the supreme court. Neither Ballon or Maringe had anything to say before the death sentence was pronounced.

Chicarine, however, dramatically declared that he was innocent. He reiterated that he had told the truth upon the witness stand when he said he had shielded Johnson. He denied that he had struck Johnson or shot him, "and if Johnson is above he knows that I do not lie."

Three false mustaches led to the arrest of four men, three of whom were sentenced, accused of the murder of George A. Johnson, at his home on the De Kalb street pike, in Norriton township, in Norristown, last fall. Felix Fare, the fourth man, was convicted of murder in the second degree in the Montgomery county court last December.

FIND MAN'S JAW ON BEACH

Thought to Be That of Passenger of Lost Ship.

Atlantic City, Feb. 22.—Beach strollers at Georgia avenue were startled when Earl Leeds, a fourteen-year-old lad, found the lower jaw of a man, whitened by bleaching in the sands.

Police who examined the find believe that the bone is from the skull of a passenger on some foundered ship. The bone will be added to the police collection of curiosities.

WHY SALVES FAIL TO CURE ECZEMA

Scientists are now agreed that the eczema germs are lodged not in the outer skin or epidermis, but in the inner skin. Hence, a penetrating liquid is required, not an outward salve that clogs the pores.

We recommend to all eczema patients the standard prescription Oil of Wintergreen as compounded in liquid form known as D. D. D. Prescription. A trial bottle of this D. D. D. Prescription, at only 25 cents, will instantly relieve the itch. We have sold and recommended this remedy for years, and know of wonderful cures from its use. We recommend it to our patrons.

BLOCKADED

Every Household in Gettysburg Should Know How to Resist it.

The back aches because the kidneys are blockaded.

Help the kidneys with their work.

The back will ache no more.

Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this.

It's the best proof, for it comes from Gettysburg.

John J. Tawney, 234 Baltimore Street, Gettysburg, Pa., says: "I hold Doan's Kidney Pills in high esteem and I always have a box in the house to use in case of need. I suffered from rheumatism and kidney complaint. My back ached constantly and often in the morning I was so stiff and lame that I could hardly get out of bed. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and caused me no end of annoyance. Being advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I did so getting them from the People's Drug Store and I was surprised by their promptness in relieving me. My health improved greatly and I now have no cause for complaint. Two years ago a member of my family publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills in my behalf and at this time I can confirm that statement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Stomach Misery for Over Six Years

Read what Mr. Hoffman, landlord of the Webster Hotel, writes.

"I suffered misery and intense pains from stomach trouble for over six years, and all the doctoring that I did or medicines I used were of no avail until about two years ago, when I used a treatment of Mi-o-na. The first few days' treatment helped me greatly and upon using it a while I was made entirely free from any stomach trouble or complaint whatever. Since the cure by Mi-o-na I have regained my weight, I eat and sleep well, am never nervous, and my entire general health is much better."—Max M. Hoffman, Webster, N. Y., Aug. 2, 1909.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets relieve distress in five minutes. They act like magic. They are guaranteed to cure sour stomach, gas eructations, heartburn, dizziness, biliousness and nervousness, or money back. For sale by druggists everywhere and by People's Drug Store for 50 cents a large box.
